COURSE DESCRIPTION

Art 1 is designed to introduce a range of visual art created throughout the world. The language of art, art criticism, aesthetics and art history will be included in each lesson. Art 1 units may include drawing, painting, sculpture, fibers, ceramics, computer graphics, video, photography and printmaking. The order in which these media are taught will depend on your instructor's learning sequence. Using the broad history of art as inspiration, you will make your own artworks.

In addition, to meet the requirements of this class, you must successfully complete assigned reading and writing assignments. You should expect to work on projects and assignments both inside and outside of class. The amount of outside class work will vary each week. You will be given sufficient notice of due dates.

GRADING

- All projects will have a Due Date. You will have one week after receiving a grade to resubmit the project for a new grade.
- There will be homework assignments each quarter. Homework assignments will not be accepted late and may NOT be resubmitted.
- It is your responsibility to gather information missed due to absence. All work will be due upon your return to class. Deadlines may be extended in unusual cases with prior teacher approval. All homework will be posted on our class Web site - msgran.com.
